

Observational Profile Area

- Discourse, comprehension and production

Suitable for Years prep—six

Suitable For

- Small Group
- 1:1
- Class

Hear the story, make the story

Language Focus

To focus on students ability to comprehend and recall stories.

Materials

- Story book
- Optional: drawing materials, puppets, dress ups etc

Procedure

- Read a story to the students.
- After the students have heard the story they must recreate the story through one of the following: drawing, puppet play or acting it out to the class.
- For older students ; Once they have recalled the story they can change the ending or predict what might happen next.

Notes

It is up to the teacher to work out what level their students would be at with recalling stories.

Younger students may need the story re-read to them.