

Melbourne Town Hall Series

Professional Development Program

Lewis & Lewis is currently promoting a series of professional development workshops to be conducted at Melbourne Town Hall. We are proud to present the following exciting event:

Understanding Middle Years Literacy Learning

Description: The focus of this session is to understand the characteristics of middle-years learners that might impact on how they undertake formal assessments. The program will explore how these students learn in the school context and what implications this will have for the staff responsible for assessing them. Participants will be invited to present case examples prior to the event so that specific issues can be addressed during the session.

Presenter: Dr John Munro is the Associate Professor Exceptional Learning at the University of Melbourne. He is a Member of the Australian Psychological Society and former convenor of the College of Educational and Developmental Psychologists (Victoria) and College of Educational and Developmental Psychologists (National). Dr Munro has published widely in the areas of gifted education; gifted learning and characteristics of learning disabilities. Recently he has undertaken the role of educational consultant to the Department of Education in Saudi Arabia.

Target Audience: Psychologists, Speech Pathologists, Teachers and Allied Health Professionals.

Date and Time: Tuesday, 24 November 2009 (9:00am – 5:00pm)

PD Points: This program has been endorsed by the Australian Psychological Society and will attract 7 generalist PD points for APS members.

Cost: $300.00 per person (student discounts apply)

Location: Yarra Room, Melbourne Town Hall, 120 Swanston Street Melbourne

THIS IS A PD PROGRAM NOT TO BE MISSED!

Program includes morning and afternoon tea and lunch.
