

The Program for Students with Disabilities: TWO DAY INTRODUCTION TO ASSESSMENT FOR PSYCHOLOGISTS

Course outline

This course has been designed for Psychologists conducting assessments for the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development's Program for Students with Disabilities to determine eligibility for Intellectual Disability or Severe Language Disorder with Critical Educational Need.

Day One will include an introduction to the administration of the WPPSI-III and WISC-IV, an overview of PSD Guidelines for Psychologists and a review of relevant research in the field of intellectual assessment. Interpretation of intellectual profiles will be discussed and include examples of unusual cases. The day will will conclude with an overview on the preparation of reports for the PSD. Each participant will be provided with a package of resources and asked to complete an assessment prior to attending day two.

Day Two will build on the material covered in day one. In addition, each or a number of participants will be invited to present their assessment results to the group. The morning will conclude with a panel discussion.
